Love's Travel Stops Purchases 20-Acre Site in West Point for Truck Stop

Love's Truck Stop has purchased a 20-acre site off Exit 2 on Interstate 85 in West Point, Georgia.

According to a preliminary site plan Love's plans on building a 12,000 square foot facility on the 20-acre site. The $20 million investment, includes a truck stop, restaurant, a Speedco, gourmet coffee, snacks, and more for motorists and professional drivers.

Founded in 1964 and headquartered in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the Love's Travel Stops remains family-owned and operated. "The thriving community of West Point creates a great opportunity for us to serve more Customers in Georgia," said Greg Love, co-CEO of Love's. "Our new location will bring jobs, truck parking, and serve the growing number of travelers and professional drivers looking for a place to stop along Interstate 85."

"We are thrilled that Love's a proven leader in the travel stop and services industry has decided that West Point is a great place to locate." West Point's Mayor, Steve Tramell, stated. "They will be a huge asset to our Exit 2 corridor drawing traffic to town, adding jobs and generating new sales and property tax revenue. It will be a cornerstone project for 10th Street."

The location will be under construction late spring 2019 and is scheduled to open late November or early December 2019.
