

LEARN MORE

Georgia has a highly trained and innovative workforce that continues to grow. Our skilled and diversified workforce stems from the many colleges and universities placed throughout the state, as well as the many training centers, including Quick Start, the No. 1-ranked training center in the nation. With abundant support from many diverse communities, Georgia stands at the forefront, poised to fulfill the demands of the aerospace industry and drive towards a future of prosperity and advancement.

SCOTT BERTA | MANAGER
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT
e. sberta@locationgeorgia.com
c. 770.313.7299

Learn more:

LOCATIONGEORGIA.COM | ECOGA.ORG

  @locationgeorgia

AEROSPACE MANUFACTURING

Aerospace products are Georgia's No.1 export

$8.8 B in 2024

State's 2nd largest manufacturing industry generating

$57.5 B economic impact

Source: GDEcD

AEROSPACE RANKINGS

Georgia has been ranked Top 5 in aerospace manufacturing
by PwC for more than a decade
5th for aerospace attractiveness
in 2024 by PwC

AEROSPACE WORKFORCE

120+ Aerospace products
and parts
manufacturing
employers
25K+ Aerospace products
and parts
manufacturing
employees

Source: JobsEQ 2025

Georgia Tech's aerospace engineering program ranked No. 2
in the country in 2025 (Source: GDEcD)